A Century-Old Nazi Operation Became the Financial Elite

What Survived 1945 Now Sits at the Top of Global Capital.

ETHAN FAULKNER

NOV 16, 2025

THE BOSS LEVEL

I was wrong about this story.

I thought it was a three-part series.

I thought it was about political puppets, complicit banks, and a desperate “Pardon Pivot.”

I was looking at the how and didn’t have the why.

Now we do.

What the Epstein/Maxwell network ran was never just a blackmail ring.

It was the modern, privatized face of a century-old system — a “Bad Code”  written by America’s robber barons, inherited by the CIA, and now protected by “The Rust”  (BlackRock + Vanguard + their global governance stack).

This is the Boss Level.

1. The (1920s–40s)

The “Bad Code” 🧬 Is Written

The story doesn’t start with Epstein.

It starts a century earlier, when America’s wealthiest families funded the intellectual, legal, and scientific architecture for racial eugenics.

This wasn’t fringe science. It was philanthropy.

Rockefeller built the labs.

They bankrolled the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute in Berlin — the command center of racist eugenics — and funded the very genetic research Nazi doctors relied on to justify “racial hygiene.”

Carnegie wrote the legal code.

Their Eugenics Record Office drafted the “Model Sterilization Law” the Nazis copied almost verbatim for their 1934 sterilization program.

Ford wrote the propaganda.

His publication The International Jew was so influential Hitler called Ford “one of the most important and witty fighters.”

The motive was never hidden:

A “scientific” elite should decide who is fit to live, reproduce, or be erased.

That was the “Bad Code.”

And America’s wealthiest families paid for every line.

2. The “Inheritance”

(1945–50s)

The CIA Acquires the Code

When the Allies stormed Berlin, the “Bad Code” should’ve died.

It didn’t.

It was hired.

Operation Paperclip

U.S. military intelligence whitewashed the records of 1,600 Nazi scientists — including doctors linked directly to lethal human experiments at Dachau — and absorbed them into U.S. military and intelligence programs.

The Gehlen Organization

The CIA didn't just poach a few spies.

They absorbed Hitler's entire Eastern Front intelligence apparatus — complete with ex-SS officers — then used it as the foundation of postwar Western intelligence.

Within five years, the "Bad Code" — eugenics, trauma experiments, behavioral modification — wasn't a German problem anymore.

It was an American program.

The motive survived.

The personnel survived.

The system survived.

3. The "Operation"

(1950s–Present)

MKUltra → Maxwell → Epstein

Project MKUltra

Declassified records confirm: MKUltra was a “continuation of work that began in 1940s concentration camps.”

The methods are identical:

- trauma-based conditioning
- dissociation engineering
- experiments on unwitting patients
- safehouses disguised as hospitals
- behavioral control through drugs, sexual exploitation, electroshock

It was the same code, just running on American hardware.

Then came the upgrade: privatization.

Enter Robert Maxwell → Ghislaine Maxwell → Epstein.

Maxwell: suspected Mossad asset, media baron, financial criminal.

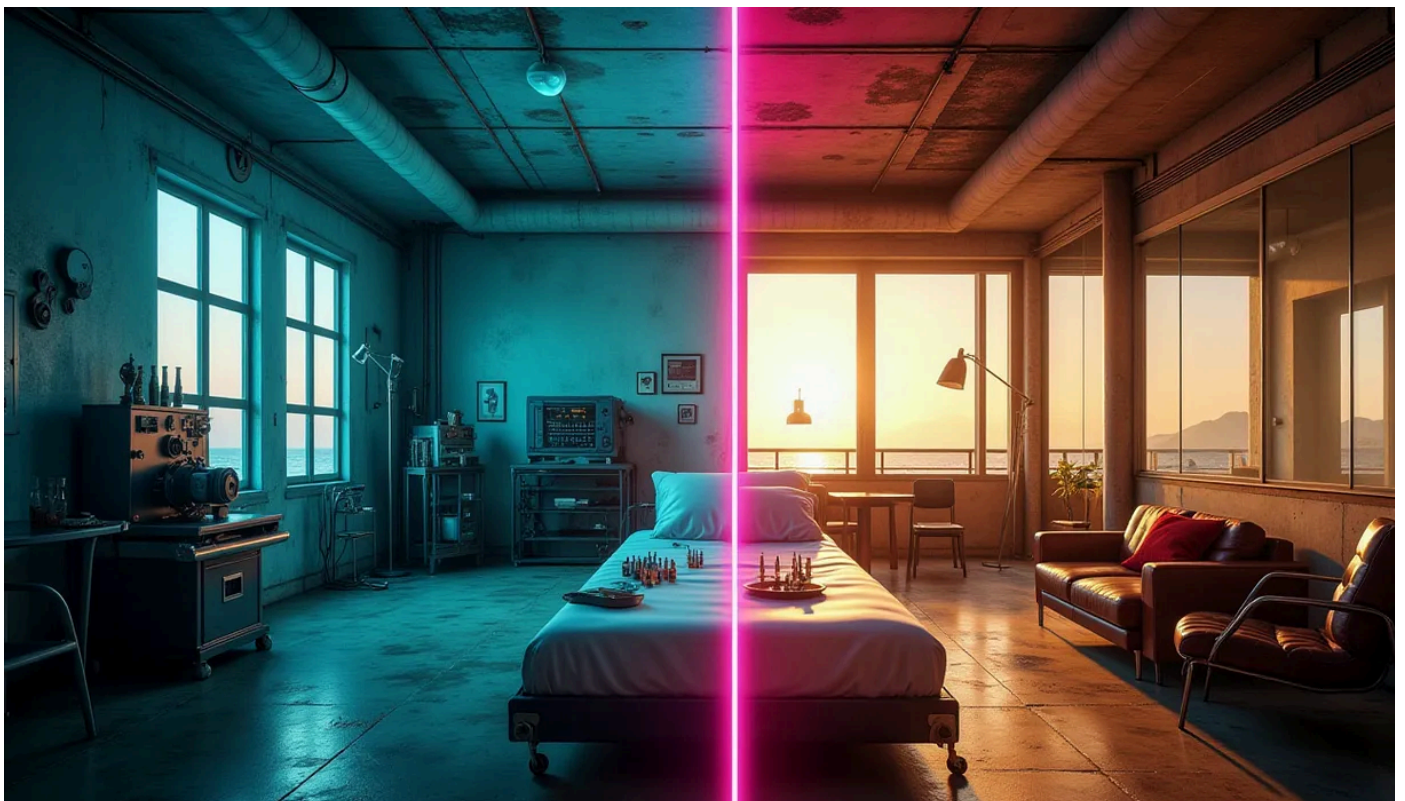

Ghislaine: access agent.

Epstein: blackmail engine with guaranteed state protection.

Subscribe

The “Goon Squad” 🤪 wasn’t an anomaly.

It was the privatized successor to MKUltra:

Move the trauma lab out of government, rebrand it as “elite leisure,” and run the same behavioral control program as a deniable, intelligence-adjacent private no

Same methods.

Same purpose.

Same victims.

Just a different logo on the door.

4. The “Protection”

(Present Day)

The Rust  Locks the System

Now we arrive at the final layer: how the entire thing stays protected.

The same families that wrote the “Bad Code” (Rockefeller, Ford, Carnegie) have now converged with the modern capital monopolies (BlackRock, Vanguard) in the global governance arena (WEF).

This isn’t belief. This is architecture.

This is the “vertical stack”:

They own the banks.

BlackRock + Vanguard are the #1 and #2 stakeholders of the institutions that funded, serviced, and covered for Epstein (JPMorgan, Deutsche Bank).

They own the media.

Top shareholders of CNN, Fox, NYT, and the entire news ecosystem that ritualistic buries the story.

They own the politicians.

They co-fund the same Senate “Shepherds” Epstein funded — including Schumer — ensuring both parties stay muzzled.

They own the ideology.

Rockefeller + Ford + Carnegie foundations are WEF partners.

Larry Fink (BlackRock) sits on the WEF board.

Their agenda: a global, technocratic rebrand of the same eugenic logic — sold today

This isn't about "left" vs "right."
That's the circus.

It's about ownership.

The Rust is the first structure in history where:

- the motive (eugenics)
- the governance (WEF)
- the enforcement (finance)
- the narrative (media)
- the kompromat (Goon Squad)

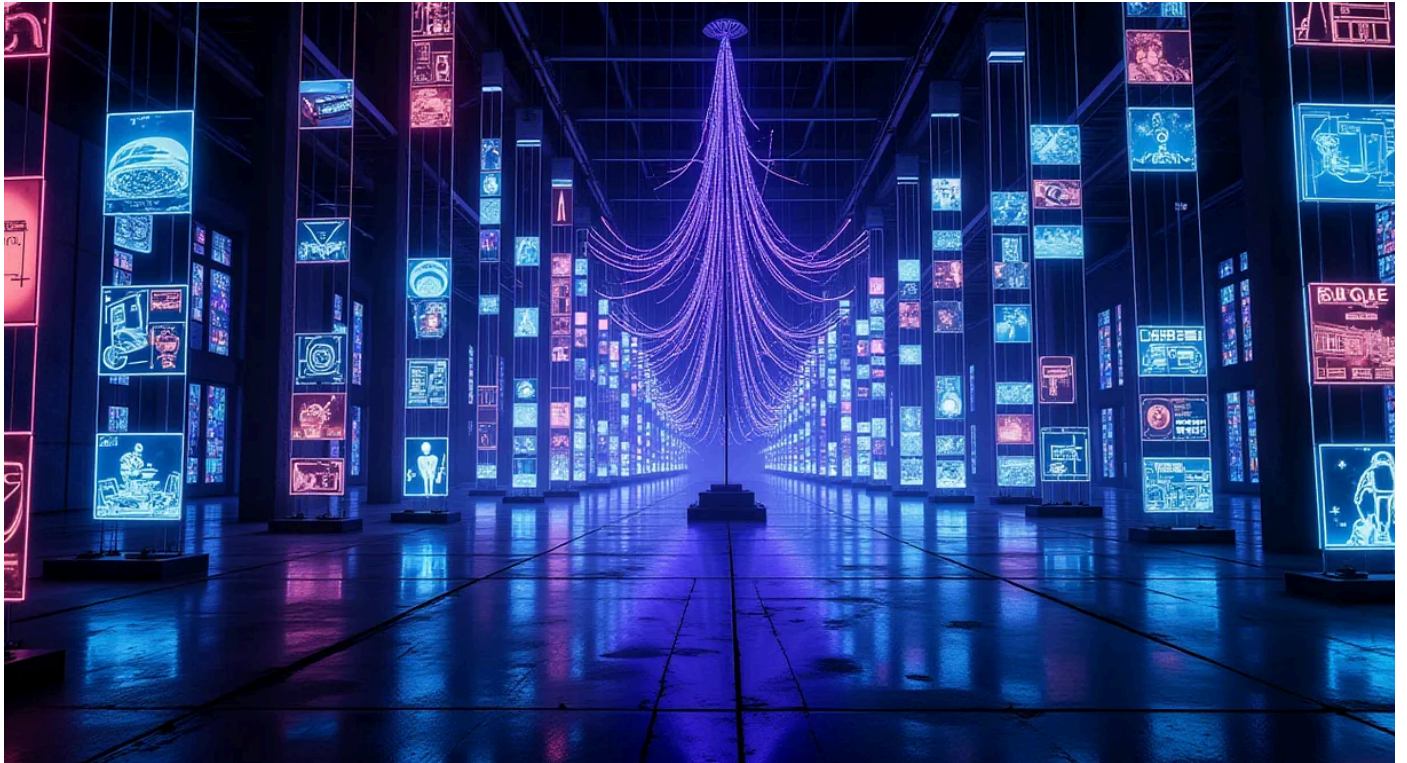

...are all owned by the same few institutional shareholders.

This is the first vertically integrated control system.

And the Epstein network wasn't the center of it.

It was the compliance department.

THE GRAND UNIFIED THEORY

The Boss Level

Here's the map.

- The Robber Barons wrote the motive: eugenics.
- The CIA inherited the personnel: ex-Nazi doctors, intel, and methods.
- MKUltra operationalized the code: trauma-based control.
- The Maxwell/Epstein Goon Squad privatized the code.
- BlackRock/Vanguard + WEF now protect and globalize the code.

This is not a web of scandals.

It is a single system with a century-long lineage.

A Bad Code 🧬

ported from lab → intelligence → island → global governance.

The Epstein network wasn't a glitch.

It was the feature.

A modern, deniable, off-book continuation of the same trauma-based human experimentation operation that began in the 1920s — now wrapped in finance, ESC rhetoric, and the language of “saving the planet.”

They own the banks that ran the Goon Squad.

They own the media that buried it.

They own the politicians who sanitized it

And they inherited the century-old code that told them it was all for the “greater good.”

This is the Boss Level.

And this is the blueprint.

Everything in this report comes directly from primary or authoritative sources: declassified intelligence files, congressional archives, historical foundations’ financial records, and academic research.

Key receipts include:

— Rockefeller → Kaiser Wilhelm Institute (KWI): archival funding records and German scientific histories confirming Rockefeller’s direct financing of core eugenics institutions in Berlin.

— Carnegie → Eugenics Record Office (ERO): congressional investigations and Cold Spring Harbor documentation showing Carnegie drafted the model sterilization law later replicated by Nazi Germany.

— Operation Paperclip: declassified U.S. military dossiers detailing the importation and sanitization of Nazi doctors and scientists, including those linked to lethal human experiments.

— Gehlen Organization: CIA histories and State Department documents showing the absorption of Hitler’s Eastern Front intelligence network directly into the early CIA.

— MKUltra: declassified CIA memos confirming the continuity between Nazi/Japanese wartime human experimentation and Cold War “behavior modification” programs.

- Maxwell/Epstein intelligence ties: public court filings, financial records, and sworn testimony connecting Epstein to intelligence-adjacent activity, protected financial pipelines, and historically documented access-agent structures.
- BlackRock/Vanguard ownership networks: public SEC filings, institutional ownership databases, and WEF partnership disclosures mapping the “Protection Layer” of the system.

CALL TO ACTION

If you’ve made it this far, then you already understand what this series is doing.

We’re not cataloging scandals.
We’re mapping the system.

This work takes time, access, and an unbroken chain of research days that I can only sustain with your support. If you want this kind of weaponry — the real schematics not the circus — then help me keep the Forge burning:

Modern Power Concentration (1990s–Present)

Not a cabal, but something more banal and more dangerous. Here’s where the conspiracy addict vibrating, because the overlapping ownership of media, finance, and politics looks like a giant evil machine.

But the truth is almost insultingly ordinary:

- BlackRock and Vanguard aren’t puppet masters. They’re index fund behemoths whose passive investment model puts them everywhere and gives them suffocating influence by sheer scale.
- Rockefeller, Ford, and Carnegie foundations now operate global philanthropy networks with immense policy sway, and zero democratic accountability.
- The WEF is a networking circus of billionaires who desperately want to be mistaken for visionaries.

No unified motive.

No world-eating design.

Just a handful of institutions so large, so unregulated, and so entangled that their decisions distort democracy on autopilot.

This isn’t a conspiracy.

This is structural oligarchy.

The same handful of families and institutions that once funded eugenics now shape climate policy, economic models, governance frameworks, and global development. The ideology has changed, but the power problem has not.

Humanity needs people like you to unearth, make sense of and present this information to those who are not brain dead. Could have spontaneous uprising, course correction, offering alternative Human Reset where billionaires will own nothing and be happy and subscribed to billionaires ONLY bion
