Ariane de Rothschild, Jeffrey Epstein, and Børge Brende: the late pedophile had valuable contacts in the super elites.

Epstein and the planet overlords.

For years, it's been known how late pedophile Jeffrey Epstein had valuable contacts not only among politicians and royal family members, but also among the real planet overlords, the members of the super elite whose name is not even known to the population at large.

Now, with the new 3-million-plus documents released by the US DOJ, the extent to which Epstein was capable of articulating with these powerful figures is being laid bare.

To begin with, we have none less than Ariane de Rothschild, head of the family-owned Edmond de Rothschild Swiss private bank. Her name appears more than 4,400 times in the Justice Department's online search.

The member of the über powerful family has been found to have exchanged dozens of emails with the disgraced financier, having also agreed to multiple meetings during a period of about five years before his 2019 arrest and jailing.

Reuters reported:

"The documents, released by the U.S. Justice Department on Friday, do not appear to contain any sign of criminal wrongdoing. But they raise questions about an earlier characterization by the bank of their relationship, cited by the Wall Street Journal in 2023, which said she met with Epstein as part of her normal duties at the bank."

The WEF is conducting an independent review into the relationship.

“Brende said he had been ‘completely unaware of Epstein’s past and criminal activities’ and would have declined any invitations or communication had he known. ‘I recognize that I could have conducted a more thorough investigation into Epstein’s history, and I regret not doing so’, he said.

The first dinner, with diplomats and business leaders at Epstein’s New York townhouse, took place in 2018. Ahead of the meeting the two exchanged views on the future of Davos, with Epstein saying the elite gathering in Switzerland ‘can really replace the UN’. The pair also dined together in June 2019, weeks before Epstein was arrested.”
